

Ballot Question Political Activity

	Appointed Non Policy-Making	Appointed Policy-Making	Elected
Serve on a private ballot question committee	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only.	Yes.
Contribute to a ballot question committee or expend personal funds to support or oppose a ballot question	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
Advocate or engage in political activities during work hours	No.	Only if the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.
Advocate or engage in political activities while acting in an official capacity or wearing an official uniform	No.	Only if the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.
Discuss a ballot question at public or private meetings	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only unless the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.
Take a position on a ballot question	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
Analyze the impact of a ballot question	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
Provide copies of an analysis or position statement	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
Hold an informational forum	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only unless the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.

	Appointed Non Policy-Making	Appointed Policy-Making	Elected
Speak to the press	Outside of work hours only, except that staff may respond to inquiries from the press if directed to do so.	Outside of work hours only unless the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.
Appear on cable television	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only unless the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Yes.
Use an official title in endorsing or opposing a ballot question	No.	Only if the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.	Only if the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities.
Use a public building for advocacy	Only outside of work hours; must be a building to which equal access is provided.	Only outside of work hours unless the ballot question is related to the official's responsibilities; must be a building to which equal access is provided.	Must be a building to which equal access is provided.
Attend a political committee's campaign function	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only.	Yes.
Post information on a government bulletin board or website	Only if the information is prepared as part of the official's responsibilities.	Yes.	Yes.
Distribute information or advocacy to voters using public resources (email, computers, printers or anything paid for with public money)	No.	No.	No.
Distribute information or advocacy to voters using private resources	Outside of work hours only.	Outside of work hours only.	Yes.